

Introduction for DENNIS WARNER

Reminder to please silence all cell phone

Today's (Tonight's) performer is Dennis Warner.

Dennis' career has taken him to theaters, festivals, universities, clubs, schools and community gatherings in every state. In March 2023 he will perform his first South African tour with 20 performances in 21 days.

An award winning musician, Dennis Warner has also performed at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. in recognition of his contributions as a songwriter.

His 11th CD "Pilot Me" debuted at #8 on the folk music radio charts in 2020 and has been played on radio stations throughout the United States and around the world.

Dennis is also the author of the popular children's book, "BEADS ON ONE STRING", now in it's 8th Printing.

His book and CDs will be for sale after the concert.

He loves to laugh and smile, and we're excited to have him here today (tonight).

Please welcome recording artist DENNIS WARNER.
