Concert Sponsored by:

Folk/Americana singer and songwriter Dennis Warner blends humor, audience participation and serious music into a fun, memorable concert for adults and families.

Warner has toured extensively throughout all fifty of the United States and a large part of Canada, appearing numerous times on both television and radio. He has released ten CD's and one children's book. In recognition of his contributions as a songwriter, he was honored with an invitation to perform in concert at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C.

Besides his original music, Warner has recorded several songs written by others. Fan favorites include Don't Laugh at Me, The Garden Song (Inch by Inch) and Homegrown Tomatoes. Many also know Dennis for his viral YouTube video I'm My Own Grandpa with over half a million views.

Seeds is Dennis Warner's ninth CD, released in January 2012. Produced at his own Thousand Pines recording studio in Minnesota, it features Warner as a solo artist and also with his longtime band "the D's". Based on radio play worldwide, Seeds was named one of the top albums in folk music that year, along with Warner also being named one of the top folk artists.

In 2015, Dennis released his tenth CD, Beep Beep. After years of fan requests, it is his first album intended for children and came to fruition after receiving a grant from the McKnight Foundation and the Central Minnesota Arts Board. Beep Beep weaves together Warner favorites from when he was growing up, with newer songs, either written by him or friends and colleagues in the folk music world like Tom Rush and Tom Paxton. Also included are first ever studio versions of his own popular songs, Beads on One String and Biscuit Man.

Warner's career blossomed following the original release in 2004 of his song Beads on One String as a children's book. Now in it's sixth printing, Beads on One String the book has become a favorite with teachers and parents alike for it's powerful, positive message of unity combined with beautiful illustrations.

Dennis Warner accompanies his smooth vocals with strong instrumentation, incorporating both six and twelve string guitars. Warner's concerts are suitable for all ages.
