

DENNIS WARNER

Seeds

(MAIN TRAIL)

This fascinating collection explores and expresses many facets of love: obsessive-compulsive (“First Thing”), long-distance (“Rendezvous”), first time (“The Awakening”, featuring Glen Everhart’s heavenly harmonies), even wordless (“One Dog, Two Squirrels”).

From stellar opener “What a Lovely Night” through an imploring, empowering, uplifting “Have a Little Faith in the World,” Warner’s passion for performing and genuine love for his listeners shine brightly. “Old Love” is an absolutely gorgeous anniversary anthem celebrating tried, true, everlasting love. “Seeds” imagines folk/poet/beatnik/boatnik Jesus Christ singing His sower’s parable.

Each flawless offering is artfully arranged, expertly executed, respectfully rendered and perfectly produced by Dennis, his brotherhood band of “D”isciples (Dan Neale, Derrick Raiter, Dennis Kennedy) and guests Mike Zeleny and Freebo (bass), Pat Riley (cello) and Paul Diethelm (guitar). Singers Leela Grace, Jeff Engholm, J.D. Steele, Pat Curto and Julie Rust all blend beautifully with Warner. On Dan Fogelberg’s song “Once in Love” (done livelier and lovelier here), Dennis sings, “You’ll always be a lover.” Once you dig Seeds, you’ll become a lover of Dennis Warner’s inspired music too! Amen. DENNIS MCDONOUGH
